

Angeliki Papapanagiotou – Leza

Judge of Appeal

Graduated from the Law School of the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens (1982). Attorney at Law, member of the Athens Bar Association (1984). Appointed as Judge at the Administrative Court of First Instance of Athens (1987). Promoted as President at the Administrative Court of First Instance (2004). Executed Head of the Administrative Court of First Instance of Piraeus (2010-2012). Promoted as judge of Appeal (April 2010). At the moment, she is serving at the Administrative Court of Appeal of Athens. Visiting Fellow at Wolfson College, Cambridge and the University of Cambridge and Visitor at the Faculty of Law, University of Cambridge (2003 – 2004). She is teaching at the National School of Judges. She has been a member of Legislative Committees of the Greek Ministry of Justice. She has participated as a speaker in many conferences. Her articles have been published in legal journals. She was elected as a General Secretary of the Association of Greek Administrative Judges (1993-2003).